

Study Method Matrix

	Course Implementation	RPL (recognition of prior learning)	Work-based learning
What	Learning will take place according to course implementation plan	Learning according to course requirements has taken place	Learning according to course requirements takes place at work
How	Varies between implementations, according to teacher's instructions	Through self-initiated demonstration as agreed with the teacher	Carrying out agreed work-related tasks to achieve required learning
Ways of working	Different learning methods available (contact, distance learning, team work, independent study etc)	Preparing a plan to be approved by the teacher and submitting documents / demonstration as agreed	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Submitting a work based learning plan that is approved by workplace representative and teacher. 2. Acquiring competence and skills by carrying out work-related activities according to the plan
Documentation	According to course implementation plan	Reference demonstrating that prior learning has taken place (work experience /trainings / testimonials / evaluations / certificates etc)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enrollment • Work based learning plan • Work based learning report • Feedback from workplace representative
Evaluation	According to course contents and learning goals. Typically done by the teacher, may also include self- and peer-assessment	According to course contents and learning goals. Evaluation by teacher based on the learning evidence and demonstration	According to course contents and learning goals applied to work context as agreed. Joint evaluation by the student, teacher and workplace representative