SPACES OF TOURISM

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP:

Università degli Studi di Genova - DAD organises Spaces of Tourism, an international workshop within Ulysseus BIP Programme. The workshop will focus on the area of Sestri Levante and will take place there and in Genoa, Italy. In 2022 Sestri Levante had a population of around 17,000 inhabitants and welcomed 465,000 overnight stays, making tourism increasingly impacting on the city and landscape. The workshop aims to develop a reflection on the theme of travel, the relationship between tourism and the city and its economic, spatial and meaning implications. Wanderers of the world, travel! Appropriate each other without the fear of the accusation of being mere tourists. After all, we are all temporary and everything is temporary. So let's take advantage of locations à la page, let's go à la plage!

HOW TO PARTECIPATE:

All Bachelor, Master and PhD students of all disciplines that in various forms deal with space, its design, its economies, its theories and its narrative are invited to participate. Applicants must send a short CV or motivation letter by 31 May to the coordinators for each own university, listed under the respective University logo. Selected students will be able to apply for the ERASMUS+ Short-Stay Grant that helps cover a significant part of travel, accommodation, and subsistence expenses. The course gives 3 ECTS.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO:

You will design an ephemeral space on the coastlines of Sestri Levante. In four different scenarios offered from this suggestive small town bathed by the Mediterranean sea you will be involved in the making of an ephemeral structure that imagines new relationship between locals and tourists. A temporary design to transform tourist sites and city spaces.

3 ECTS
